To MR. J. L. PURDY, whose untiring efforts in behalf of the youth of this community and whose constant interest in promoting educational opportunities in the City of Spokane have been recognized and appreciated by students and patrons, we respectfully dedicate this TREASURE CHEST.

"What in life can bring more joy
Than to direct the life of a girl or boy?
Your duty like the great Divine
Is to direct and train a human mind."

—R. B. MacDonald.

REDDY KILOWATT SAYS:

Darla Dickie, Joan Johnson, Joan Davis and Jack Powell hear some amazing facts about the instant control and distribution of electricity throughout the Washington Water Power system and other sections of the Northwest from Mr. Graham Martinson, chief of what is one of the most modern and advanced operating centers of any electric system in the world. W.W.P. is an investor owned business.

● For 71 years The Washington Water Power Company has been building to meet the needs of Inland Empire residents, businessmen, and farmers.

This expansion continues in order to provide you, today's homemakers and businessmen, in a vital, growing community.

Your friends, Reddy Kilowatt and over a thousand employees, of the Washington Water Power Company wish you hearty congratulations.

KEITH DAVIDSON

CHERIE THIRY

Outstanding Achievements

Keith Davidson was chosen as Rogers top science student and was eligible to compete for the Bausch and Lomb scholarship. Cherie Thiry was chosen as runner-up.

Paul Lewis, a familiar face at Rogers, has been appointed principal nominee for the United States Military Academy at West Point by United States Representative Walt Horan.

Barbara Harcy, Washington's Betty Crocker Winner receives a medal for her accomplishment. Her effort also entitles her to a $1,500 scholarship, and trip to New York City to compete for a national award of $5,000.

Bonnie McMartin and Dennis Evans tied for high honors at Rogers in the National Math Contest. Carol Sloan received third for her effort.

Olan Burrow and Sue Plewman won the Rogers United Nations essay contest and city honorable mention.

Scholastical Activities

The Rogers Debate Team participates in various statewide, citywide, and district tournaments. Debate is one of the ways we are able to compete scholastically with other schools.

One of the teaching aids used some classes in the field trip. Here Mr. Becher's class visits historic old Spokane House.

Richard Finch won the best boy speaker award in the Northeast District Debate League.

Homerooms with the highest cumulative average are given recognition through display plaques. This time awards went to homerooms and their representatives, Roberta Coe, 132; Roberta Neils, 308; Francie Pryor, 211A; Harland Sather, 127; Bob Webb, 131; Peggy Ivy, 216.

CONS and DANCES

September

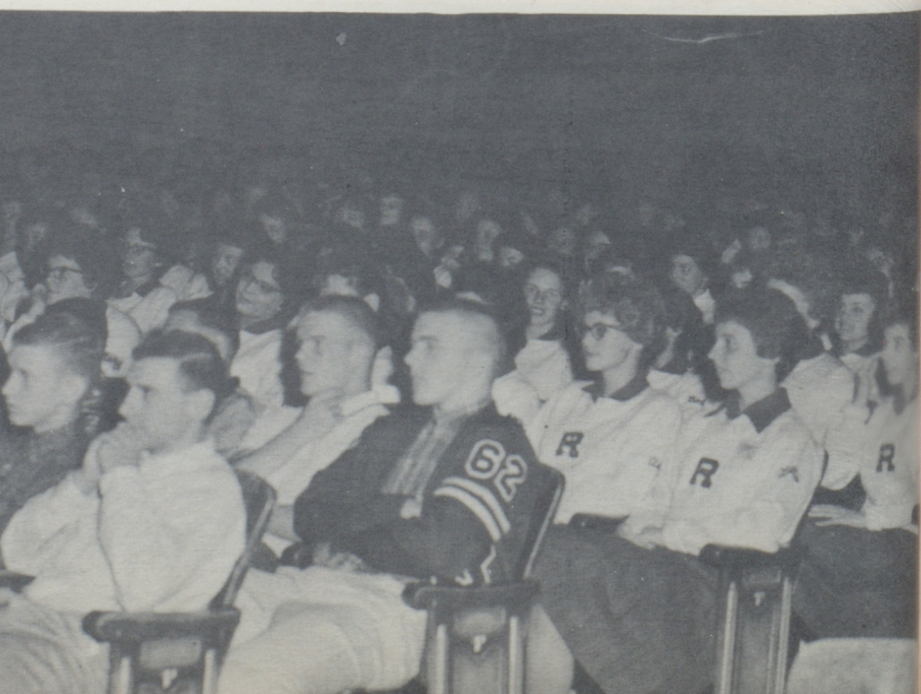

"Down through the ages" was the theme for this year's frosh initiation. This picture shows the dance of modern times.

Big sisters, Nadine Olmstead and Julienne Avery, are showing their little sisters, Linda Schults and Carol Nugent around the school. They are pictured here looking at a home-ec display.

Just look at the crowd! This utter confusion continued through the first few weeks of school, largely due to the increase of students.

The cheerleaders took time out to pose for a picture during the half of the Rogers vs. Lewis and Clark football game.

One of the first pep cons of the year was held for the Rogers vs. Shadle Park football game.

October

Mr. Purdy swears in the Executive Council.

Frances Pryor helps Mr. J. Davis with a demonstration during the Atomic Energy Con.

The highlight of the first Girls' League meeting of the year was the introduction of the Girls' League chairmen. Peggy Nelson, con chairman, describes the costume Jackie Palmer is wearing to represent her committee.

Members of the annual staff look over plans for this year's Treasure Chest.

November

AS YOU CAN SEE . . . the fall Girls' League officers put all they had into one of the funniest Girls' League Cons of the year.

THE ANNUAL SADIE HAWKINS DANCE . . . was a great success this year. These are the prize winners: Left, Lee Singleton; middle, Shiela Thompson; right, Rich Naccarato and Darlene Williams.

December

ONE OF THE HIGHLIGHTS of the Girls' League Christmas con was the appearance of Santa and opening of the gifts.

THE NURSERY SCHOOL children had a Christmas party in the nursery. They decorated the room and tree with the ornaments they made.

THE STAGE CREW is a very important part of the dramatic department, designing sets and acting in all school plays.

MR. MCGOWAN is being served by girls in the Home Economics department at a tea during the Christmas holidays.

THE CHOIR AND ORCHESTRA played a large part in the Christmas convocation.

January

THIS YEAR, as every year, the "Dad and Daughter Dessert" drew a large crowd.

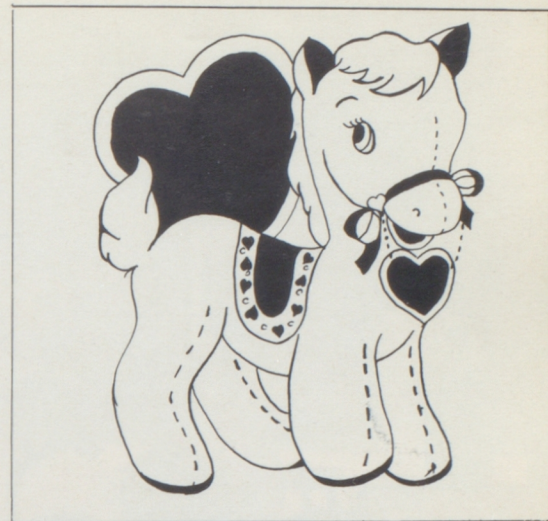

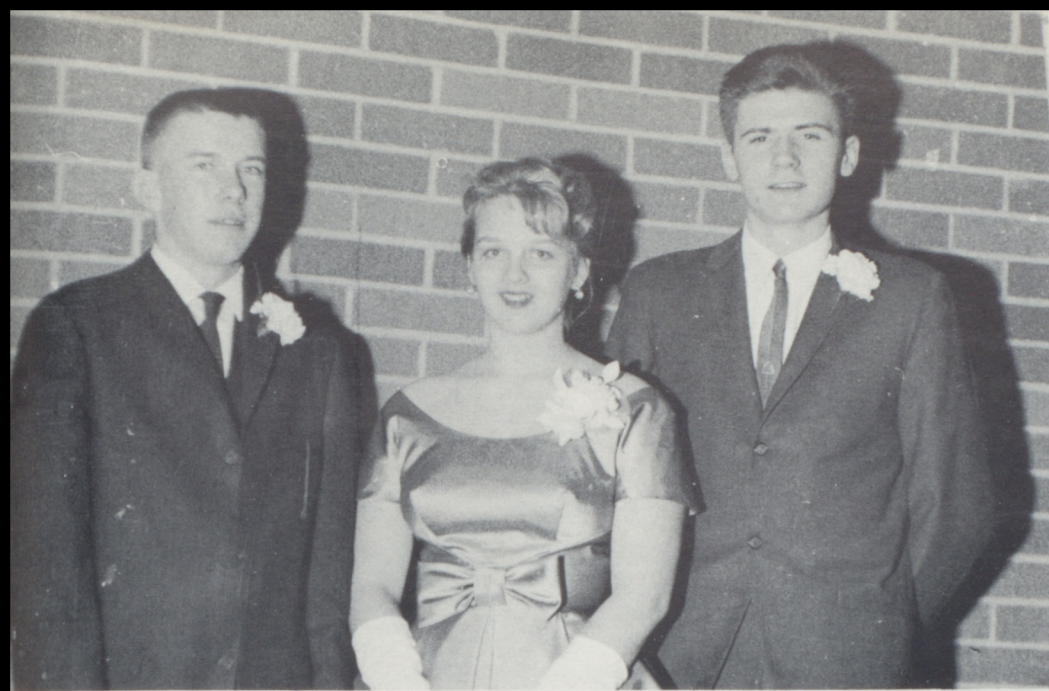

SHOWN HERE is just one of the many acts that went to make up the entertainment following the dessert.

SOME OF THE ROGERS PERSONNEL also take part in the fun of girls' after school parts.

IT IS THE DUTY of the students to vote at every election.

February

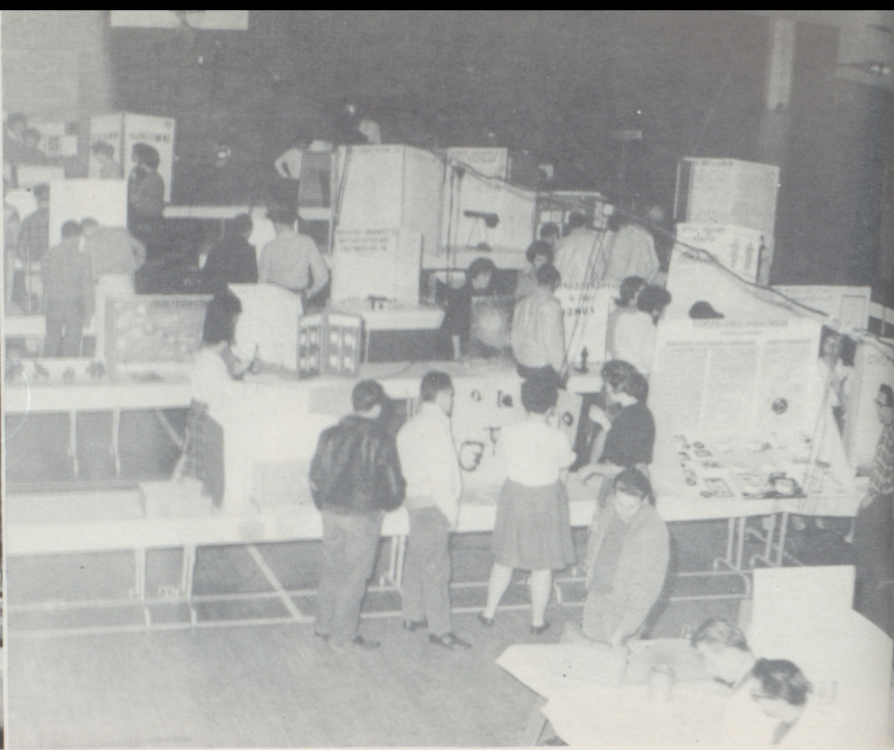

Eddie Glowen, Darla Dickey and Gary Britt were installed, along with other officers, at the INAUGURAL BALL.

THE BOYS' QUARTET was just one of the many acts of the talent con. They portrayed a barbershop quartet.

MR. C. C. DILL, former United States Senator, was the guest speaker at a con in honor of George Washington's Birthday.

Everyone had a wonderful time at the INAUGURAL BALL. ASB, Boys' Fed. and Girls' League officers were also installed at the dance.

March

The projects that are entered in the Rogers Science Fair involve a lot of hard work. Anastasia, Rogers all-school play, was a dramatic production, with an historical background that dealt with the Russian revolution.

Some of the students of the radio-t.v. speech department, pose for a picture while rehearsing individual parts.

April

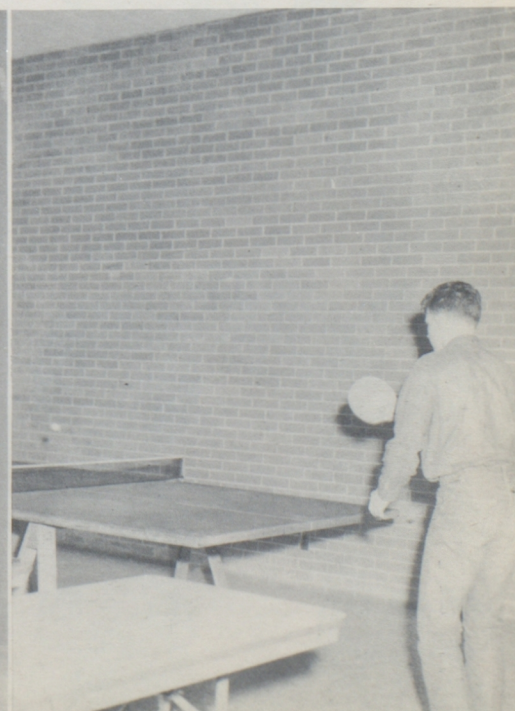

Anxiously awaiting for the final decision of the judges to pick Rogers' Lilac Princess are—Donna Gar-Grave, Jerry Emerick, Maurine Melior, Sandy Worthington, Rolalie Beck, and Nena Smothers.

Spring Sports in full swing!

Ping Pong is just one of the many indoor sports you may take part in if you attend recreation nights in the cafeteria, as these boys did.

Every year during the hectic time of the spring sports queen competition, each candidate puts on a skit to try to boost her ticket sales.

WHO? WHAT? . . . Check your score with page 50.

SENIOR SUPERLATIVES

Sandy Satterfield, this year's homecoming queen, was chosen by the varsity football team. Sandy and her court reigned over the homecoming festivities.

HOME-COMING

Senior Princess—JOAN JOHNSON

Freshman Princess—SANDRA OSTERLUND

Two things marred this year's "Big R Day" and homecoming, Roger's loss to Gonzaga, and an unseasonable downpour of rain.

BIG "R"

Big "R" week was held during football season this year. The climax of this bi-annual event was the Gonzaga game. The coronation of the Homecoming Queen and her court took place at half-time.

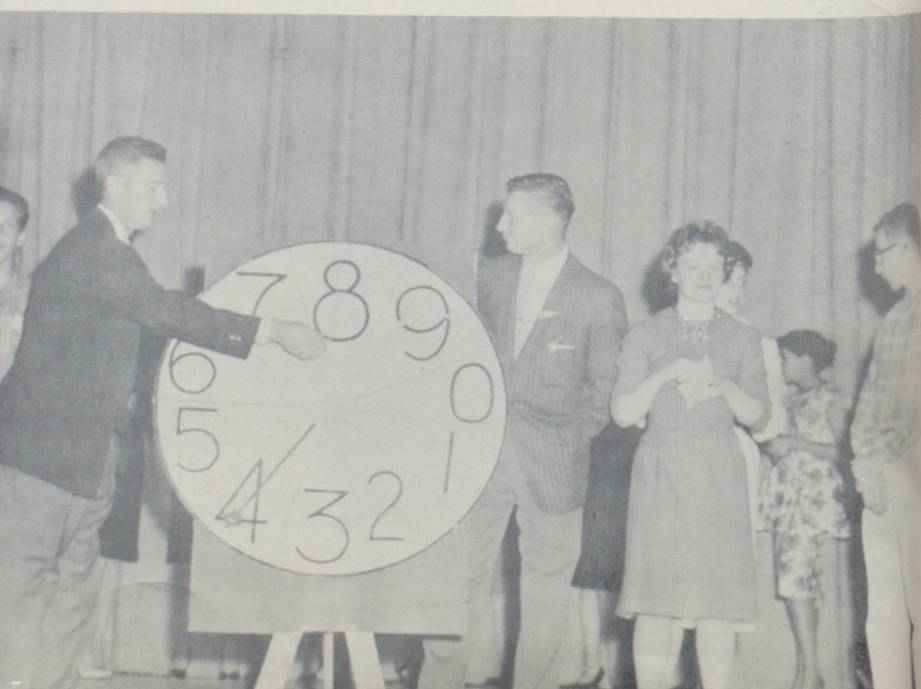

Date winner Muriel Johnson and her escort, Ray Hass, are shown at the Harvest Moon Dance.

Randy Harke, representing homeroom 303, is shown with their display. Bill Rubright and Gene Lynch have just finished judging the display.

Homeroom 202 also had a very eye-catching display.

Jan Welsh and her escort, Royce Snyder, collect part of their prize at the Pine Shed.

Mr. Coleman, faculty advisor of "R" week, along with Mr. Johnson spin for more winners. Linda Davis, "R" week chairman gives Chet Roller a gift certificate for his holding the right ticket.

WEEK

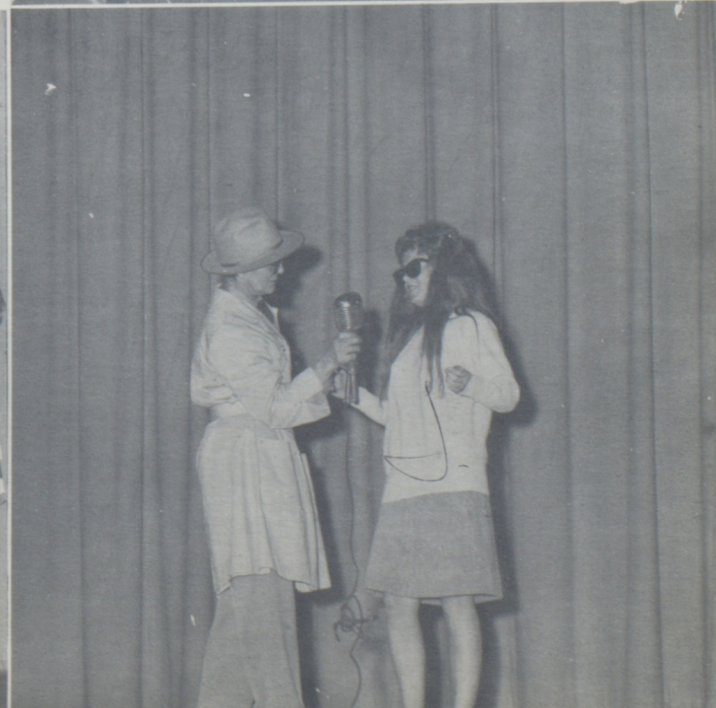

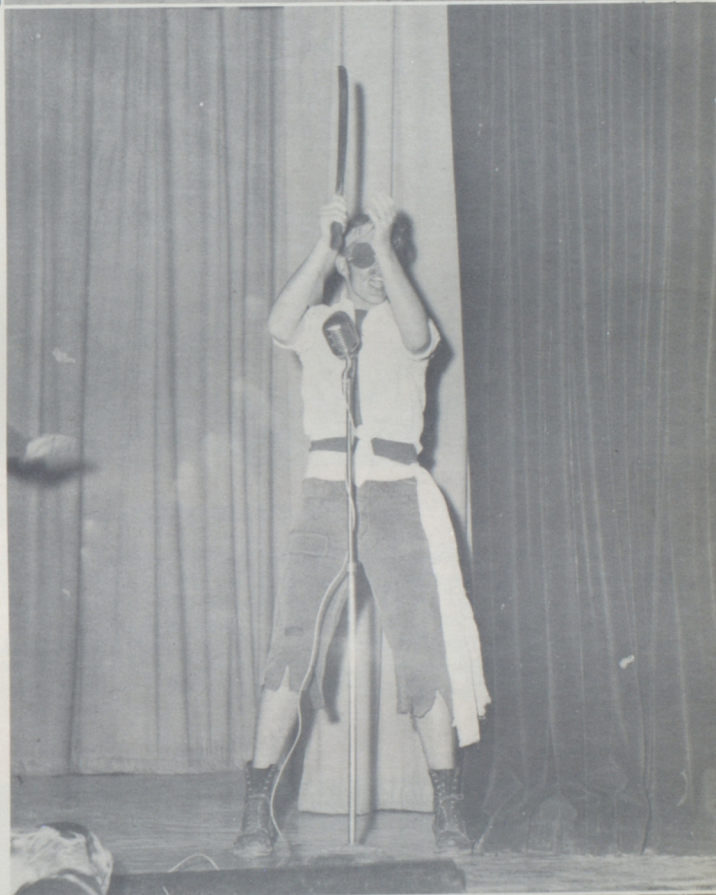

Hi-Y constructed a large "R" on Meyers field. Friday morning of the big week, the Senior Math Club with the help of the band, Pirettes, and other members of the student body, filled in the Hi-Y's "R".

Homeroom 130 also had an outstanding display.

Bill Rascho represents a small amount of the spirit shown during the week.

Mrs. Leland and Judy Wilson take part in the Girls League production during the activities of the week.

Ed Glowen, Pat Stookey, and Rich Naccarato participate in a take off of the "Untouchables" in the Boys Federation's presentation.
